The Honorable Frank C. Carlucci
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Carlucci:

On behalf of the Tucson Committee on Foreign Relations, I would like to thank you very much for taking time to speak to us on the evening of November 18, 1980.

I think your talk helped members of our Committee to better understand the practical problems confronting the intelligence community as it attempts to carry out assignments given it. It was especially enlightening to see the confirmation exercised by the Executive Branch. I think most members of our Committee would agree with your conclusion that the Freedom of Information Act should be amended to provide special exceptions for our intelligence agencies.

We are delighted that you and Mrs. Carlucci had this opportunity to visit Tucson, and we hope that your next visit can be more leisurely. We appreciate, however, that it must be very difficult for someone with your responsibilities to be away from Washington very long.

Thanks again for a very fine presentation to our Committee. I hope that other Committees around the country have an opportunity to hear your talk and become more familiar with the difficulties confronting the intelligence community, and efforts which are underway to deal with them.

Sincerely yours,

Jay S. Kittle

Dear Frank:

I want to let you know how much we appreciated your visit to Arizona and the time that you spent with the Phoenix Committee on Foreign Relations.

I feel that we had a very good meeting and appreciate your frankness during the discussion period, which added considerably to the overall appreciation of the issues by our members. I regret that time limitations and our seating arrangements at dinner did not permit us to get better acquainted, but I had an interesting discussion with your wife Marcia.

I too spent some years in Brazil and, as a matter of fact, am leaving Saturday for a South American trip which will include a few days in Sao Paulo. I would have enjoyed discussing the situation in both Brazil and Portugal with you in greater depth. Perhaps we will have a chance to visit again sometime in the future, as I hope you will have opportunities to return to Arizona.

Please give my regards to Marcia and let her know that we are looking forward to a return visit.

Best regards,

William K. Rapp

Second Meeting

1980-81 Season

Tuesday, November 18, 1980

OLD PUEBLO CLUB (21st Floor)
32 North Stone Avenue

Guest Speaker: The Honorable Frank C. Carlucci,
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Topic: "Intelligence in Support of Foreign Policy in A Free Society"

Social Hour 6:00 P.M.
Dinner. 7:00 P.M.
Presentation. 8:00 P.M.

One of the most controversial and vital aspects concerning the formulation of foreign policy in our society is the role of intelligence, especially the Central Intelligence Agency. Unfortunately, much of the controversy in the news media has demonstrated exaggerated concern over relatively superficial problems of CIA operations, without much regard for the vital necessity of intelligence as a whole. Yet, by their very nature, intelligence operations pose some very perplexing problems in our so-called free society.

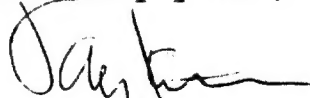

To discuss with us the mission of the CIA, and the problem of reconciling the need for effective intelligence operations in a democracy with a need to protect citizens' rights, we are most fortunate to have with us for our November 18 meeting the Honorable Frank C. Carlucci, Deputy Director of Central Intelligence. Mr. Carlucci not only helps in directing the CIA, but also helps in presiding over the entire "intelligence community" of about a dozen agencies.

Mr. Carlucci graduated from Princeton, and did graduate work at the Harvard School of Business Administration. After a tour of duty as a Navy Lieutenant and a year with the Jantzen Company, he joined the Foreign Service in 1956. Following a variety of African assignments, he served as Consul General, Zanzibar, 1964-65, Counselor for Political Affairs, Rio de Janeiro, 1965-69, and Ambassador to Portugal 1974-77. During 1969-71, Mr. Carlucci held the position of Assistant Director and Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity. In 1971, he was appointed Associate Director, Office of Management and Budget, followed by appointment as Deputy Director. From 1972 to 1974, he served as Under Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. He was sworn in as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence on February 10, 1978.

Please complete the enclosed card and return it in the self-addressed envelope along with your check to Georgina Staggs in the amount of $12.00 per person for dinner reservations to arrive no later than Friday, November 14.

Sincerely yours,

Jay S. Kittle
Secretary

P.S. By way of explanation, a late change of plans on the part of another distinguished speaker precluded an October meeting. Nevertheless, mark your calendar now for our December 2 meeting which will be announced shortly.
